INTRODUCTION.

IN publishing a Work of this Nature it is necessary to premise that the European Colonies in America and the West Indies are of Two Descriptions—First where the Lands are claimed by Right of Occupancy only, by finding them desert and uncultivated and peopling them from the Mother Country; and, Secondly, when already cultivated, they have been either gained by Conquest or ceded by Treaties; and both these Rights are founded upon the Law of Nature, or at least, upon that of Nations. The Colonies belonging to Great Britain are, principally, of this latter Description, and therefore the Common Law of England, as such, has no Authority there, being distinct (though dependent) Dominions: They are subject, however, to the Controul of the Parliament of Great Britain, though not bound by any Act, unless particularly named.*

With respect to Countries gained by Conquest, the Inhabitants, once received under the King's Protection, become Subjects, and are to be universally considered in that light, not as Enemies or Aliens; and although the King, without the Concurrence of Parliament, has a Power to alter the old and introduce new Laws in a conquered Country, he cannot exempt an Inhabitant from the Laws of Trade, or from the Power of the Parliament of Great Britain, or give him Privileges exclusive of his other Subjects.*

* Commentaries on the Laws of England.

The Form of Government in most of the British Colonies is borrowed from that of England; and the Laws passed by their General Assemblies and Council, with the Concurrence of the Governor, are of the same Validity in the Colonies, as Acts of Parliament are in the Mother Country; unless repugnant to any Law made in Great Britain relative to the Colonies, in which Case they are utterly void and of no Effect †.

It has been the Policy of the different Nations of Europe, with regard to their Colonies, to secure to themselves respectively the most important of their Productions, and retain exclusively the great Advantage of supplying them with European Produce and Manufactures; Commercial Monopoly is therefore the leading Principle of Colonial Intercourse.

The British Colonies in the West Indies (in so many respects dissimilar in Nature and Situation from those in North America) are of great Value and Importance, for their Cultivation is devoted to Objects which the Mother Country cannot produce, and which, from their extensive Consumption, afford the surest Means of balancing her Foreign Trade.

They answer in every point of view all the Purposes and Expectations for which Colonies have at any Time been established. Their Productions are not only sufficient for the Consumption of the Mother Country, but afford the Means of a large Export to Foreign Markets, of many valuable and most necessary Commodities, none of which interfere in any respect with her own Productions, and most of which she cannot obtain on equal Terms elsewhere ; and, as many of these Commodities yield a Profit so much beyond what can be obtained from the Cultivation of Grain, it is true Economy in the Planter to buy Provisions from others rather than raise them by his own Labour. The Trade of the West Indies, therefore, supports and increases British Commerce and Navigation in Time of Peace, and very eminently tends to invogorate her Operations in War.

A Series of Regulations, Restrictions, and Prohibitions have therefore been devised, to secure to Great Britain the exclusive Trade of her Colonies ; no Goods are to be imported or exported in Foreign Shipping ; no Commodity whatever, the Growth or Production of Europe, is allowed to be imported into the Colonies, unless laden in the Mother Country, except certain Articles and Implements for the Fisheries, eries, and Wine from the Madeiras or Azores. Before the lading Sugar, Coffee, and many Articles of Colonial Production, Security must be given to convey them to some other British Colony, or to the United Kingdom. These latter Articles being enumerated in the Navigation Acts, have for that reason, been called "Enumerated:" Other Articles, not included in the Enumeration, may be exported directly to any Countries of Europe, not being to the Northward of Cape Finisterre.

Amongst other Regulations for securing the due Execution of the Navigation Acts, a Duty was imposed upon the principal Enumerated Commodities when not intended to be conveyed to Great Britain; for it had been found that, under colour of shipping the Articles for another British Colony or Plantation, they were often vended at Sea to the Shipping of other Nations, or transported to Europe direct.

The Enumerated Articles are of Two Sorts—First, such as are either the peculiar Produce of America, or as cannot be produced (or at least are not produced) in the Mother Country;—Secondly, such as are not the peculiar Produce of America, but which are or may be produced in the Mother Country, though not in such Quantities as to afford a sufficient Supply, and have therefore been obtained from European Countries.

By

By confining the Enumerated Articles to the Home Markets, the Merchants are not only enabled to buy them cheaper in the Plantations, and consequently sell them at a better Profit at Home, but to establish between the Plantations and Foreign Countries an advantageous carrying Trade, of which Great Britain was necessarily to be the Centre or Emporium, as the European Country into which the Articles were first to be imported. The Importation of Articles of the Second Kind are so managed as to interfere, not with the Sale of those of the same Kind which were produced at Home, but, with the Sale of those imported from Foreign Countries, because, by means of proper Duties, they might be rendered always dearer than the former, and yet much cheaper than the latter. This was intended to operate as a Discouragement to the Produce, not of Great Britain, but of some Foreign Countries with which the Balance of Trade was held to be unfavourable to Great Britain.*

This System has in view Two Objects—First, the Increase of our Naval Strength; Secondly, the securing to the Parent State all the Emoluments arising by the Monopoly both of the Imports and Exports; and another Advantage is, that we receive from our Colonies all the Products, Raw, and in the first state, and send to them every thing in the last stage of Manufacture. But “Laws, which made the Interest “ of a whole People subservient to that of “ another residing at the Distance of 3,000 “ Miles, were not likely to execute themselves “ very readily, nor was it easy to find many on “ the Spot who could be depended upon for “ carrying them into Execution †.”

More effectually to prevent the Frauds and Abuses that had existed to the Prejudice of the British Navigation, and the Loss of a great Part of the Trade of the Colonies, many additional Regulations have been directed to be observed, the most material of which are—that the Masters of Ships coming into or going out of the British Colonies shall report, and, if inward bound, before proceeding to the Place of unloading; that all Ships and Goods shall be subject to the same Rules, Restrictions, Penalties, and Forfeitures to which Ships and Goods in England are subject by 13 & 14 Car. II. c. 11.; that Officers shall be appointed as often as may be needful; that no British Ships shall be qualified to trade to the said Colonies unless registered; that no Goods shall be shipped to be carried from one British Colony or Plantation to another, without a Sufferance from the proper Officers, nor conveyed from thence without a Cocket, except laden in Boats or small Vessels under Twenty Tons, and carried within inland Waters, and not farther out to Sea than One League; that no Ship carrying Goods to or from

from the British Colonies, or from one Colony to another, shall be deemed qualified to trade, until the Master shall prove on Oath that she is the identical Ship registered, that she belongs to His Majesty's Subjects, and that no Foreigner has any Share or Interest therein.

It has been deemed expedient, however, to depart in some Measure from the Colonial System, by permitting the Exportation of most of the principal Enumerated Commodities from the Sugar Colonies direct to Malta and Gibraltar, and allowing the Exportation of a great Variety of European Articles from Malta and Gibraltar direct to the said Sugar Colonies, and to Newfoundland, Bermuda, and the Colonies in North America; also Oranges and Lemons from the Azores or Madeiras: To extend also the Trade of the North American Colonies and encourage the Fisheries, the Lading of other Articles is permitted in Ports of Europe South of Cape Finisterre, on board Ships arriving from the said Colonies, either with Articles the Production thereof, or with British American Fish; finally, Dutch Proprietors in Demerara, Berbice, and Essequibo, may export the Produce of their Estates to the Netherlands, and import from thence into those Colonies the necessary Articles of Supply for the Cultivation of such Estates, and the Clothing and Maintenance of the Residents thereon, and the Trade to and from the Netherlands may be carried on in Dutch Ships.

Such

Such is briefly the Nature of the Law and Policy regarding "the Trade with Europe;" and as none of the Countries South of Cape Finisterre are Manufacturing Countries, it is not considered that any Injury can arise in consequence of the Departure from our Colonial System in favour of those Countries.

With respect to the Trade "between the Colonies," both in the Enumerated and the Non-enumerated Commodities, it is perfectly free, except as to Hats, Wool, and Woollen Manufactures, the Exportation of which is wholly prohibited to any Place; this Prohibition was intended to prevent the Establishment of any Manufactures of such Commodities in the British Colonies, to the Injury of the Export Trade of the Mother Country.

Ever since the Independence of the "United States," the Trade of the British Colonies has been subject to particular Limitations and Restrictions, with respect to its Intercourse with that Country. Having broke off their Political Connexion with Great Britain, and become our Rivals in Trade and Manufactures, it was thought necessary to confine the "Imports" to Tobacco, Naval Stores, and such Articles as the British Colonies did not produce in sufficient Quantities for their Use and Consumption, and which could not be obtained elsewhere, and to confine the "Exports" to some Enumerated Commodities and Goods not prohibited to Foreign Countries in

in Europe ; such Articles and Goods being imported and exported by British Subjects and in British Ships, except as to Importations into Bermuda of the Articles first-mentioned, and Exportations from the Bahamas of the Article of Salt.

To prevent a circuitous Trade in the Articles permitted to be imported direct, Articles of the like Description are prohibited to be imported from the Islands and Colonies under the Dominion of "Foreign European Sovereigns or States," except in Cases of public Emergency or Distress, when the Governors, with the Consent of their respective Councils, may authorize the Importation of the Articles for a limited Time from any of the said Islands or Colonies ; but an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament* to permit the Importation of some of the Articles for such Supply without Authority from the Governors ; and by another Act of the last Session† His Majesty is authorized to open Ports in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick for the Importation of Lumber, Cattle, Corn, Provisions, and other Articles in British Ships or in Ships belonging to the Subjects of any State in Amity with His Majesty, but none of the Articles are to be imported in Foreign Vessels, unless the Produce of the Country to which the Vessels importing the same shall belong. The Act also † 58 G. III. Ch. 19. This is a temporary Law to continue in force for Three Years, and until Six Weeks after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

allows the Exportation of Goods from those Ports to Foreign Countries either in British or Foreign Vessels, but no Exportations are allowed in Vessels of the latter Description, unless they belong to the Country to which the Goods are to be exported.

A very lucrative Trade had always been connived at in the West Indies, between the Spanish and English Colonies; and Orders in Council were issued soon after the passing of the Navigation Act, which expressly directed that Spanish Ships should be allowed to import into our Colonies particular Articles of Commerce, notwithstanding the Provisions of the Navigation Acts.*

It has since been considered that "opening Ports in the West Indies," for the more free Importation and Exportation of Goods under certain Restrictions and Limitations, would be productive of considerable Advantage to the Manufactures of the Mother Country, and be a Means of increasing and extending the Trade and Navigation of His Majesty's Dominions: Acts have therefore been passed to permit a Variety of Articles to be imported into Ports in the West Indies from Colonies under the Dominion of Foreign European Sovereigns or States, in Ships owned and navigated by the Inhabitants thereof; particular Commodities may also be exported in such Ships.

To point out, however, the specific Articles affected by our Colonial and Navigation System,

* Mr. Reeve's Law of Shipping.

and

and the particular Regulations applicable to so important a Branch of Commerce, is a Matter of much Difficulty, owing to the Multiplicity of Articles, and their being subject, in many Instances, to distinct Regulations provided by Acts passed at remote Periods, by which the legality of the Importation or Exportation, as the Case may be, will sometimes depend upon the Place or Country where the Article is produced or manufactured, or from whence shipped and brought ; or the Port or Colony into which imported, or from whence exported ; the Built, Property, and Manning of the Ship ; the Necessity of the Importation, and whether under proper Authority ; and lastly, whether by His Majesty's Subjects or Aliens : These are important Considerations, as affecting our Colonial and Navigation System, and by which the Legislature appears to have been principally influenced in regulating and restricting the Trade and Commerce of the British Colonies. Independently of these Considerations, it is to be observed, that some Articles are absolutely prohibited to be exported to Foreign Countries ; others are subject to Duty on Importation under different Circumstances, such as the Place or Country of their Production, or from whence brought ; some Articles are liable to Duty on Exportation, according to the Place to which exported, or the Circumstances under which shipped, and many Regulations are provided for the Security of the Revenue, and the regular landing and shipping of the Article.

It

It occurred to the Compiler, that the Difficulty arising from the present perplexed state of these Laws could only be obviated, by arranging them under such appropriate Heads and Titles, as the Nature of the Subject might require. The Acts relating to the same Matters would thus be brought into the closest point of view, and arranged in such Order as might best contribute to render them intelligible; this Plan is an Improvement upon all former Compilations, where the Laws are classed under the general Head "Plantations" or "British Dominions Abroad," which occasions tedious and intricate research, whenever it is necessary to refer to the Laws applicable to a particular Colony or Country, such as "Canada," "Newfoundland," "Europe," "United States;" or to particular Commodities, such as "Sugar," "Coffee," "Tobacco," "Wood;" and a variety of Acts affecting each of these Countries and Articles, have passed at very remote Periods.

The present Alphabetical Digest has therefore been compleated, in which the whole Law is brought together under the specific Article, Country, or Subject treated of, and the Acts are arranged so as to shew their Connexion with and Dependence on each other.

In abstracting the different Laws, the Substance thereof is conveyed in the Words used by the Legislature, and although more concise, yet nothing has been omitted which can be in any way material for the Information of the Reader;

Reader ; and to give the utmost Facility to research, Marginal Notes have been framed by the Compiler with the greatest Care and Attention.

Some of the Acts of Parliament which relate to Trade and Navigation in the British Colonies and Plantations in America, equally apply to Trade and Navigation in the United Kingdom and other Parts of His Majesty's Dominions, particularly the Acts arranged under the Head, "Aliens," "Navigation of British Ships," and "Registry of British Ships;" the present Work may therefore be considered of Utility to the Owners and Masters of British Ships generally.

The Policy of these Laws having been before adverted to, it seems necessary to apprise the Reader, that the Propriety of carrying them into Execution according to their strict enactment, became a Subject of mature Consideration in the Case of the "Betty Cathcart," libelled and condemned at Jamaica for trading without a Register ; but upon appeal to the High Court of Admiralty, the Sentence was reversed by the present Judge of that Court; upon which Occasion his Lordship observed, that "the Revenue and " Navigation Laws are certainly to be construed " and applied with great exactness ; they are " framed for the Security of great national In- " terests ; and the Effect of such Laws, founded " on great Purposes of public Policy, must not " be weakened by a minute tenderness to par- " ticular Hardships ; at the same time, it is " not to be said, that they are not subject to all " Con-

“ Considerations of rational Equity. Cases of “ unavoidable Accident, invincible Necessity,
 “ or the like, where the Party could not act
 “ otherwise than he did, or has acted at least
 “ for the best, must be considered in this System “ of Laws as in other Systems. Laws that “ would not admit an equitable Construction to “ be applied to the unavoidable Misfortunes or “ Necessities of Men, or to the exercise of a fair “ Discretion under Difficulties, could not be “ Laws framed for human Societies. The Court “ therefore will not deem it a departure from “ the Duty of legal Interpretation in such Cases
 “ to give a fair Attention to Considerations of “ this Nature*.”

In furtherance of the Principles here laid down, the Legislature, with a view to afford Relief to Merchants and Ship Owners, has empowered the Lords of the Treasury and the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs to restore Ships or Goods seized under the Navigation Laws, if it shall appear to their Satisfaction that the Forfeiture arose without any Design of Fraud in the Proprietor; and in Cases where their Lordships or the Commissioners exercise the discretionary Power vested in them, no Proceedings can be had either against the Ship or Goods, or for the Recovery of the Share to which the Seizing Officer would be entitled after Condemnation.

Persons who are required to assist in the Preservation of Ships stranded or in danger of stranding.

* By an Opinion of the Law Officers of the Crown in June 1767, it is considered that these Laws regarding 'Ships stranded, extend to and are in force in His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America; as the Title of the Act 12 Ann. st. 1. c. 18. expressly imports the same to be an Act for preserving Ships and Goods forced on Shore or stranded on the Coast of HER MAJESTY'S DOMINIONS, and the enacting Part has Words extending the Act to Her Majesty's Dominions, notwithstanding the Promulgation of the Law, and some other Provisions in it, are applicable only to Great Britain.'

How far the Clauses of the Act of Ann. and of the other Acts altering and amending the same, here inserted, can be carried into Execution in the British Colonies and Plantations, will depend upon the Nature of the public Establishments at the Colony or Plantation where a Ship or Goods may be stranded, or near which a Ship may be in Distress or in danger of stranding, or where any Offences may be committed.

TREATY WITH SPAIN,

FOR PREVENTING TRAFFIC IN SLAVES,

Signed at Madrid, 23d September 1817.

By the FIRST ARTICLE, His Catholic Majesty engaged that the Slave Trade shall be abolished throughout the entire Dominions of Spain on the Thirtieth Day of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty; and that from and after that Period it shall not be lawful for any of the Subjects of the Crown of Spain to purchase Slaves, or to carry on the Slave Trade on any Part of the Coast of Africa, upon any Pretext or in any Manner whatever; provided however, that a Term of Five Months from the said Date of the Thirtieth of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty shall be allowed for completing the Voyages of Vessels which shall have been cleared out lawfully previously to the said Thirtieth of May.

SECOND ARTICLE.—That from and after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty, it shall not be lawful for any of the Subjects of the Crown of Spain to purchase Slaves, or to carry on the Slave Trade on any Part of the Coast of Africa to the North of the Equator, upon any Pretext or in any Manner whatever; provided however, that a Term of Six Months from the Date of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty shall be allowed for completing the Voyages of Vessels which shall have cleared out from Spanish Ports for the said Coast previously to the Exchange of the said Ratifications.

hundred thousand Pounds Sterling, to such Person as His Catholic Majesty shall appoint to receive the same.

FOURTH ARTICLE.—The said Sum of Four hundred thousand Pounds Sterling is to be considered as a full Compensation for all Losses sustained by the Subjects of His Catholic Majesty, engaged in this Traffic, on account of Vessels captured previously to the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty, as also for the Losses which are a necessary Consequence of the Abolition of the said Traffic.

FIFTH ARTICLE.—Every Traffic in Slaves, which should be carried on under the Circumstances in the said Article stated, should be considered as illicit; First, either by British Ships, and under the British Flag, or for the Account of British Subjects, by any Vessel, or under any Flag whatsoever: Secondly, by Spanish Ships upon any Part of the Coast of Africa North of the Equator, after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty; provided however, that Six Months should be allowed for completing the Voyages of Vessels, conformably to the Tenor of the Second Article of the said Treaty: Thirdly, either by Spanish Ships and under the Spanish Flag, or for the Account of Spanish Subjects, by any Vessel, or under any Flag whatsoever, after the Thirtieth of May One thousand eight hundred and twenty, when the Traffic in Slaves on the Part of Spain was declared by the said Treaty to cease entirely; and it was by the said Article provided, that Five Months should be allowed for the Completion of Voyages commenced in due Time, conformably to the First Article of the said Treaty: Fourthly, under the British or Spanish Flag, for the Account of the Subjects of any other Government: Fifthly, by Spanish Vessels bound for any Port not in the Dominions of His Catholic Majesty.

SIXTH ARTICLE.—His Catholic Majesty engaged to adopt, in conformity to the Spirit of the said Treaty, the Measures which are best calculated to give full and complete Effect to the laudable Objects thereof.

SEVENTH ARTICLE.—Every Spanish Vessel which shall be destined for the Slave Trade, on any Part of the Coast of Africa, where this Traffic still continues to be lawful, must be provided with a Royal Passport, conformable to the Model annexed to the said Treaty, and which Model forms an integral Part of the same, written in the Spanish Language,

Language, with an authentic Translation in English annexed thereto, and signed by His Catholic Majesty, and countersigned by the Minister of Marine, and also by the Principal Naval Authority of the District, Station, or Port from whence the Vessel clears out, whether in Spain, or in the Colonial Possessions of His Catholic Majesty.

EIGHTH ARTICLE.—That it should be understood that the Passport, for rendering lawful the Voyages of Slave Ships, should be required only for the Continuation of the Traffic to the South of the Line, and that those Passports which were then issued, signed by the First Secretary of State of His Catholic Majesty, and in Form prescribed by an Order of the Sixteenth of December One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, should remain in full Force for all Vessels which may have cleared out for the Coast of Africa, as well to the North as to the South of the Line, previously to the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty.

NINTH ARTICLE.—The Ships of War of His Majesty and of His Catholic Majesty, which should be provided with special Instructions for that Purpose, as mentioned in the said Treaty, may visit such Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations as may be suspected, upon reasonable Grounds, for having Slaves on board acquired by an illicit Trade; and in the Event only of their finding Slaves on board may retain and bring away such Vessels, in order that they may be brought to Trial before the Tribunals to be established for that Purpose, as specified in the said Treaty; and it was by the said Article provided, that the Commanders of Ships of War of the Royal Navies of His Majesty and His Catholic Majesty, who shall be employed in this Service, shall adhere strictly to the exact Tenor of the Instructions which they shall receive for this Purpose; and His Majesty and His Catholic Majesty engaged mutually to make good any Losses which the Subjects of His Majesty and of His Catholic Majesty might respectively incur unjustly, by the arbitrary and illegal Detention of their Vessels, it being understood that this Indemnity shall invariably be borne by the Government whose Cruizer shall have been guilty of the arbitrary Detention; provided always, that the Visit and Detention of Slave Ships specified in the said Article, shall only be effected by those British or Spanish Vessels which may form Part of the

Two Royal Navies, and by those only of such Vessels which are provided with the special Instructions annexed to the said Treaty.

TENTH ARTICLE.—No British or Spanish Cruizer shall detain any Slave Ship not having Slaves actually on board; and that in order to render lawful the Detention of the Ship, whether British or Spanish, the Slaves found on board such Vessel must have been brought on board the Vessel for the express Purpose of the Traffic, and those on board of Spanish Ships must have been taken from that Part of the Coast of Africa where the Slave Trade is prohibited, conformably to the Tenor of the said Treaty.

ELEVENTH ARTICLE.—That all Ships of War of the Two Nations which shall hereafter be destined to prevent the illicit Traffic in Slaves, shall be furnished with a Copy of the Instructions annexed to the said Treaty, and considered as an integral Part thereof, with a Proviso nevertheless in the said Treaty, that His Majesty and His Catholic Majesty, with mutual Consent, may alter the Instructions in whole or in part, according to Circumstances.

TWELFTH ARTICLE.—In order to bring to Adjudication, with the least Delay and Inconvenience, the Vessels which may be detained for having been engaged in an illicit Traffic of Slaves, there shall be established, within a Space of a Year at furthest from the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Treaty, Two mixed Commissions, formed of an equal Number of Persons of the Two Nations, named for that Purpose by the respective Sovereigns; and that these Commissions shall reside, one in a Possession belonging to His Majesty, the other within the Territories of His Catholic Majesty; one of which Commissions is stipulated by the said Treaty to be always held upon the Coast of Africa, and the other in one of the Colonial Possessions of His Catholic Majesty; and it was by the said Treaty provided, that the said Commissions shall judge the Causes submitted to them without Appeal, and according to the Regulations and Instructions annexed to the said Treaty, which said Instructions were by the said Treaty made an integral Part thereof.

Slaves (Treaty with Spain).

INSTRUCTIONS

ANNEXED TO THE TREATY.

FIRST ARTICLE.—Every British or Spanish Ship of War shall, in conformity with Article Nine of the Treaty, have a Right to visit the Merchant Ships of either of the Two Nations actually engaged or suspected to be engaged in the Slave Trade; and if any Slaves shall be found on board, according to the Tenor of the Tenth Article of the Treaty; and as to what regards the Spanish Vessels, if there shall be Ground to suspect that the said Slaves have been embarked on a Part of the Coast of Africa where the Traffic is no longer permitted, conformably to the said Treaty; and in such Cases alone, the Commander of the said Ship of War may detain such Merchant Ship or Vessel, and shall, as soon as possible, bring the same for Judgment before such of the Two mixed Commissions appointed by the Twelfth Article of the said Treaty which shall be the nearest, or which the Commander of the capturing Ship shall, upon his own Responsibility, think he can soonest reach from the Spot where the Slave Ship shall have been detained; and it was provided, that Ships, on board of which no Slaves shall be found intended for the Purposes of Traffic, shall not be detained on any Account or Pretence whatsoever; and that Negro Servants or Sailors found on board any such Vessels shall not in any Case be deemed a sufficient Cause for Detention.

SECOND ARTICLE.—No Spanish Merchantman or Slave Ship shall, on any Pretence whatever, be detained, which shall be found any where near the Land, or on the High Seas South of the Equator, during the Period for which the Traffic is to remain lawful, according to the said Treaty, unless after a Chace that shall have commenced North of the Equator.

THIRD ARTICLE.—That Spanish Vessels, furnished with a regular Passport, having Slaves on board, shipped at those Parts of the Coast of Africa where the Trade is permitted to Spanish Subjects, and which shall afterwards be found North of the Equator, shall not be detained by any British or Spanish Ship of War, if such Spanish Vessel can account for their Course, either in conformity with the Practice of the Spanish Navigation, by steering some Degrees to the Northward in search of fair Winds, or for other legitimate Causes, such as the Dangers of the Sea, duly proved: Provided always, that with regard to all Slave Ships detained to the North of the Equator, after the Expiration of the Term allowed, the Proof of the Legality of the Voyage is required to be furnished by the Vessel so detained; on the other Hand, with respect to Slave Ships detained to the South of the Equator, in conformity with the Stipulations of the preceding Article, the Proof of the Illegality of the Voyage is required to be exhibited by the Captor; and it was in like Manner stipulated, that the Number of Slaves found on board a Slave Ship by the Cruizers, even if the Number should not agree with that contained in the Passport, shall not be sufficient Reason to justify the Detention of such Ship, but that the Captain and the Proprietor shall in such Case be denounced in the Spanish Tribunals, in order to their being punished according to the Laws of the Country.

FOURTH ARTICLE.—Every Spanish Vessel intended to be employed in the legal Traffic of Slaves, in conformity with the Principles laid down in the said Treaty, shall be commanded by a native Spaniard, and Two-thirds at least of the Crew shall likewise be Spaniards; and it was provided that the Spanish or Foreign Construction of the Ship or Vessel shall in no wise affect the national Character of the Ship or Vessel, and that the Negro Sailors shall always be reckoned as Spaniards, provided they belong as Slaves to Subjects of the Crown of Spain, or that they have been enfranchised in the Dominions of His Catholic Majesty.

FIFTH ARTICLE.—That whenever a Ship of War shall meet a Merchantman liable to be searched, it shall be done in the most mild Manner, and with every Attention which is due between allied and friendly Nations; and in no Case shall the Search be made by an Officer holding a Rank inferior to that of Lieutenant in the Navy of Great Britain, or of Ensign of a Ship of the Line in the Spanish Navy.

SIXTH ARTICLE.—The Ships of War which may detain any Slave Ship, in pursuance of the Principles laid down in the said Instructions, shall leave on board all the Cargo of Negroes untouched, as well as the Captain, and a Part at least of the Crew of the Slave Ship; and that the Captain commanding the Ship of War detaining any such Slave Ship shall draw up in Writing an authentic Declaration

Slaves (Treaty with Spain).

Declaration, which shall exhibit the State in which he found the detained Ship, and the Changes which may have taken place in such Ship, and shall also deliver to the Captain of the Slave Ship a signed Certificate of the Papers seized on board the Vessel, as well as of the Number of Slaves found on board at the Moment of Detention; and it is also provided, that the Negroes on board of any such Ship shall not be disembarked until after the Vessel detained shall arrive at the Place where the Legality of the Capture is to be tried by One of the Two mixed Commissions, in order that in the Event of the Vessel not being adjudged a legal Prize, the Loss of the Proprietors may be more easily repaired; with Provision, however, that if urgent Motives, deduced from the Length of the Voyage, the State of Health of the Negroes, or other Causes, require that they shall be disembarked entirely or in part before the Vessel can arrive at the Place of Residence of One of the said Commissions, the Commander of the capturing Ship may take on himself the Responsibility of such Disembarkation, provided that the Necessity thereof shall be stated in a Certificate in proper Form.

SEVENTH ARTICLE.—No Conveyance of Slaves from one Part in the Spanish Possessions to another shall take place, except in Ships provided with Passports from the Spanish Government on the Spot for that Purpose.

and that the said Commissions shall give Sentence as summarily as possible, and decide (as far as they shall find it practicable) within the Space of Twenty Days, to be dated from the Day upon which every detained Vessel shall have been brought into the Port where they shall reside; first, upon the Legality of the Capture; and secondly, in the Case in which the captured Vessel shall have been liberated, as to the Indemnification to be paid for the Capture and Detention: And it is by the said Regulations provided, that no final Sentence shall be delayed, on account of the Absence of Witnesses, or for want of the Proofs, beyond the Period of Two Months, except upon Application of any of the Parties interested, when, upon their giving satisfactory Security to charge themselves with the Expence and Risks of the Delay, the Commissioners may, at their Discretion, grant an additional Delay, not exceeding Four Months.

SECOND ARTICLE.—The said mixed Commissions, which are to reside on the Coast of Africa, and in the Colonial Possessions of His Catholic Majesty, shall be composed in the following Manner; that is to say, that His Majesty and His Catholic Majesty shall each of them name a Commissary Judge and a Commissioner of Arbitration, who shall be authorized to hear and decide, without Appeal, all Cases of Capture of Slave Vessels which, in pursuance of the Stipulation of the said Treaty, may be laid before them; and it was also provided, that all the essential Parts of the Proceedings carried on before the said mixed Commissions, shall be writtendown in the legal Language of the Country in which the Commission may reside; and it was also thereby provided, that the Commissary Judges and the Commissioners of Arbitration shall make Oath in Presence of the principal Magistrate of the Place in which the Commission may reside, to judge fairly and faithfully, to have no Preference either for the Claimants or the Captors, and to act in all their Decisions in pursuance of the Stipulations of the Treaty; and it was also thereby provided, that there shall be attached to each Commission a Secretary or Registrar appointed by the Sovereign of the Country in which the Commission may reside, who shall register all its Acts, and who, previous to his taking Charge of his Office, shall make Oath in Presence of at least One of the Commissary Judges, to conduct himself with Respect for their Authority, and to act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which may belong to his Charge.

THIRD ARTICLE.—The Form of the Process shall be as follows; the Commissioners, the Commissary Judges of the Two Nations shall, in the first Place, proceed to the Examination of the Papers of the Vessels, and receive the Depositions on Oath of the Captain, and of Two or Three at least of the principal Individuals on board of the detained Vessel, as well as the Declaration on Oath of the Captor, should it appear necessary in order to be able to judge and pronounce if the said Vessel has been justly detained or not, according to the Stipulations of the Treaty, in order that, according to their Judgment, the Vessel may be condemned or liberated; and in the Event of the Two Commissary Judges not agreeing upon the Sentence, whether as to the Legality of the Detention, or the Indemnification to be allowed, or upon any other Question which might result from the Stipulations of the Treaty, they shall draw by Lot the Name of One of the Two Commissioners of Arbitration, who, after having considered the Documents of the Process, shall consult with the Commissary Judges upon the Case in question, and the final Sentence shall be pronounced conformably to the Opinion of the Majority of the Commissary Judges and of the Commissioner of Arbitration so chosen.

FOURTH ARTICLE.—As often as the Cargo of Slaves found on board of a Spanish Slave Ship shall have embarked from any Point whatever of the Coast of Africa where the Slave Trade continues to be lawful, such Slave Ship shall not be detained on Pretext that the above-mentioned Slaves have been brought originally by Land from any other Part whatever of the Continent.

FIFTH ARTICLE.—That in the authenticated Declaration which the Captor shall make before the Commission, as well as in the Certificate of the Papers seized which shall be delivered to the Captain of the captured Vessel at the Time of the Detention, the Captor shall state and declare his Name, and the Name of his Vessel, as well as the Latitude and Longitude of the Place where the Detention shall have taken place, and the Number of the Slaves found living on board the Slave Ship at the Time of the Detention.

SEVENTH ARTICLE.—In case of the Condemnation of any Vessel for an unlawful Voyage, the Vessel shall be declared lawful Prize, as well as her Cargo, of whatever Description it may be, with the Exception of the Slaves who may be on board as Objects of Commerce; and the said Vessel, as well as her Cargo, shall be sold by public Sale, for the Profit of the Two Governments; and as to the Slaves, they shall receive from the mixed Commission a Certificate of Emancipation, and shall be delivered over to the Government on whose Territory the Commission which shall have so judged them shall be established, to be employed as Servants or free Labourers.

EIGHTH ARTICLE.—Every Claim for Compensation of Losses, occasioned by any Ship's being inspected and detained, as carrying on an illicit Trade in Slaves, but not afterwards condemned as lawful Prize by the mixed Commissions, shall be also heard and judged by the said Commissions, in the Form provided by the Third Article of the said Regulations; and in all Cases wherein Restitution shall be so decreed, the Commission shall award to the Claimant or Claimants, or his or their lawful Attorney or Attornies, for his or their Use, a just and complete Indemnification for all Costs of Suit, and for all Losses and Damages which the Claimant or Claimants may have actually sustained by such Capture and Detention; that is to say, in case of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified, first, for the Ship, her Tackle, Apparel, and Stores; secondly, for all Freight due and payable; thirdly, for the Value of the Cargo of Merchandize, if any; fourthly, for the Slaves on board at the Time of Detention, according to the computed Value of such Slaves at the Place of Destination, deducting therefrom the usual fair average Mortality for the unexpired Period of the regular Voyage, deducting also for all Charges and Expences payable upon the Sale of such Cargoes, including Commission of Sale; and fifthly, for all other regular Charges in such Cases of total Loss; and in all other Cases not of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified, first, for all special Damages and Expences occasioned to the Ship by the Detention, and for the Loss of Freight, when due or payable; secondly, a Demurrage, when due, according to the Schedule annexed to the said Eighth Article; thirdly, a daily Allowance for Subsistence of Slaves, of One Shilling or Four Reals and Half de Vor, for each Person, without Distinction of Age or Sex, for so many Days as it shall appear to the Commission that the Voyage has been or may be delayed by reason of such Detention; as likewise, fourthly, for any Deterioration of Cargo or Slaves; fifthly, for any Diminution in the Value of the Cargo of Slaves, proceeding from an increased Mortality beyond the average Amount of the Voyage, or from Sickness occasioned by Detention, this Value to be ascertained by their computed Price at the Place of Destination, as in the above Case of total Loss; sixthly, an Allowance of Five per Centum on the Amount of the Capital employed in the Purchase and Maintenance of Cargo, for the Period of Delay occasioned by the Detention; and, seventhly, for all Premium of Insurance on additional Risks; and the Claimant or Claimants shall likewise be entitled to Interest, at the Rate of Five per Centum per Annum, on the Sum awarded, until paid by the Government to which the capturing Ship belongs: the whole Amount of such Indemnifications being calculated in the Money of the Country to which the captured Ship belongs, and to be liquidated at the Exchange current at the Time of Award, excepting the Sum for the Subsistence of Slaves, which shall be paid at par, as above stipulated; and to avoid as much as possible every Species of Fraud in the Execution of the said Treaty, it was agreed, that if it should be proved to the Conviction of the Commissary Judges of the Two Nations, and without having Recourse to the Decision of a Commissioner of Arbitration, that the Captor has been led into Error by a voluntary and a reprehensible Fault on the Part of the Captain of the detained Ship, in that case only the detained Ship shall not have the Right of receiving, during the Days of her Detention, the Demurrage stipulated by the said Eighth Article. NINTH ARTICLE.—When the Proprietor of a Ship suspected of carrying on an illicit Trade in Slaves, released in consequence of a Sentence of One of the mixed Commissions (or in the Case as above mentioned of total Loss), shall claim Indemnification for the Loss of Slaves which he may have suffered, he shall in no case be entitled to claim for more than the Number of Slaves which his Vessel, by the Spanish Laws, was authorized to carry, which Number shall always be stated in his Passport.

TENTH ARTICLE.—Neither the Judges nor the Arbitrators, nor the Secretary of the mixed Commissions, shall be permitted to demand or receive, from any of the Parties concerned in the Sentences which they shall pronounce, any Emolument, under any Pretext whatsoever, for the Performance of the Duties which are imposed upon them by the said Regulations.

THIRTEENTH ARTICLE.—In the Event of the Death of One or more of the Commissary Judges, or the Commissioners of Arbitration, composing the above-mentioned mixed Commissions, their Posts shall be supplied ad interim in the following Manner; that is, on the Part of the British Government, the Vacancies shall be filled successively in the Commission, which shall sit within the Possessions of His Majesty, by the Governor or Lieutenant Governor resident in that Colony, by the principal Magistrate of the same, and by the Secretary; and in that which shall sit within the Possessions of His Catholic Majesty, it was agreed, that in case of the Death of the British Judge or Arbitrator there, the remaining Individuals of the said Commission shall proceed equally to the Judgment of such Slave Ships as may be brought before them, and to the Execution of their Sentence; and in such Case alone the Parties interested shall have the Right of appealing from the Sentence, if they think fit, to the Commission resident upon the Coast of Africa; and the Government to which the Captor shall belong shall be bound fully to make good the Compensation which shall be due to them in case the Appeal be decided in favour of the Claimants, but the Vessel and Cargo shall remain during such Appeal in the Place of Residence of the first Commission before which they shall have been carried: And it was thereby agreed, that on the Part of Spain the Vacancies shall be supplied, in the Possession of His Catholic Majesty, by such Persons of Trust as the Principal Authority of the Country shall appoint; and upon the Coast of Africa, in case of the Death of any Spanish Judge or Arbitrator, the Commission shall proceed to Judgment in the same Manner as above specified for the Commission resident in the Possession of His Catholic Majesty, in the Event of the British Judge or Arbitrator; an Appeal being in this Case likewise allowed to the Commission resident in the Possession of His Catholic Majesty, and in general all the Provisions of the former Case being to be applied: And it was further agreed by the said Article, that all Vacancies which may arise in the above-mentioned Commissions, from Death or any other Cause, should be supplied as soon as possible; and in case that the Vacancy of any of the Spanish Commissioners in the British Possessions,

TREATY WITH PORTUGAL, FOR PREVENTING TRAFFIC IN SLAVES,

Signed at London, 28th July 1817.

Whereas by the FIRST ARTICLE of the additional Convention to a Treaty of the 22d January 1815, made between His Majesty and His most Faithful Majesty the King of Portugal, for the Purpose of preventing illicit Traffic in Slaves, and signed at London on the 28th Day of July 1817, it was declared to be the Object of the said Convention, to prevent the respective Subjects of His Majesty and His most Faithful Majesty from carrying on an illicit Slave Trade; and it was also thereby declared, that every Traffic in Slaves carried on under the following Circumstances should be considered as illicit; First, either by British Ships and under the British Flag, or for the Account of British Subjects by any Vessel or under any Flag whatsoever; Second, by Portuguese Vessels in any of the Harbours or Roads of the Coast of Africa which are prohibited by the First Article of the Treaty of the Twenty-second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen; Third, under the Portuguese or British Flag for the Account of the Subjects of any other Government; Fourth, by Portuguese Vessels bound for any Port not in the Dominions of His most Faithful Majesty.

SECOND ARTICLE.—The Territories in which the Traffic in Slaves continues to be permitted under the Treaty of the Twenty-second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, to the Subjects of His most Faithful Majesty, are the following; First, the Territories possessed by the Crown of Portugal upon the Coast of Africa to the South of the Equator, that is to say, upon the Eastern Coast of Africa, the Territory laying between Cape Delgado and the Bay of Lourenco Marques, and upon the Western Coast, all that which is situated from the Eighth to the Eighteenth Degree of South Latitude; Second, those Territories on the Coast of Africa to the South of the Equator, over which His most Faithful Majesty has declared that he has retained His Rights, namely, the Territories of Molembo and Cabinda upon the Western Coast of Africa, from the Fifth Degree Twelve Minutes to the Eighth Degree South Latitude.

THIRD ARTICLE.—His most Faithful Majesty engaged, within the Space of Two Months after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Convention, to promulgate in his Capital, and in the other Parts of His Dominions, as soon as possible, a Law which should prescribe the Punishment of any of His Subjects who may in future participate in an illicit Traffic of Slaves, and at the same Time to renew the Prohibition which already exists, to import Slaves into the Brazils under any Flag other than that of Portugal; and His most Faithful Majesty also engaged to assimilate, as much as possible, the Legislation of Portugal, in this respect, to that of Great Britain.

FOURTH ARTICLE.—Every Portuguese Vessel which should be destined for the Slave Trade on any Point of the African Coast where the Traffic in Slaves should still continue to be lawful, must be provided with a Royal Passport, conformable to the Model annexed to the said Convention, and which Model formed an integral Part of the same; and that every such Passport must be written in the Portuguese Language, with an authentic Translation in English annexed thereto, and must be signed, for all those Vessels sailing from the Port of Rio Janeiro, by the Minister of Marine, and for all other Vessels which may be intended for the said Traffic, and which may sail from any other Ports of the Brazils, or from any other of the Dominions of His most Faithful Majesty, not in Europe, the Passports must be signed by the Governor in Chief of the Captaincy to which the Port belongs; and as to those Vessels which may proceed from the Ports of Portugal, must be signed by the Secretary of the Government for the Marine Department.

FIFTH ARTICLE.—The Ships of War of the respective Royal Navies of His Majesty and His most Faithful Majesty, which shall be provided with special Instructions for that Purpose, as herein-after provided, may visit such Merchant Vessels of the Two Nations as may be suspected, upon reasonable Grounds, of having Slaves on board acquired by an illicit Traffic; and in the Event only of their actually finding Slaves on board may detain and bring away such Vessels, in order that they may be brought to Trial before the Tribunals established for that Purpose, as specified in the said Convention; provided that the Commanders of the Ships of War of the Two Royal Navies, who shall be employed on this Service, shall adhere strictly strictly to the exact Tenor of the Instructions which they shall have received for that Purpose; and that as the said Article is entirely reciprocal, the Two High Contracting Parties engaged in the said Article mutually to make good any Losses which their respective Subjects may incur unjustly, by the arbitrary and illegal Detention of their Vessels, and that this Indemnity shall invariably be borne by the Government whose Cruizer shall be guilty of the arbitrary Detention; provided that the Visit and Detention of Slave Ships specified in the said Article, shall only be effected by those British or Portuguese Vessels which may form Part of the Two Royal Navies, and by those only of such Vessels which are provided with the special Instructions annexed to the said Convention.

SIXTH ARTICLE.—No British or Portuguese Cruizer shall detain any Slave Ship not having Slaves actually on board; and in order to render lawful the Detention of any Ship, whether British or Portuguese, the Slaves found on board such Vessel must have been brought there for the express Purpose of the Traffic, and those on board Portuguese Ships must have been taken from that Part of the Coast of Africa where the Slave Trade was prohibited by the Treaty of the Twenty-second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

SEVENTH ARTICLE.—All Ships of War of the Two Nations which shall hereafter be destined to prevent the illicit Traffic in Slaves, shall be furnished by their own Government with a Copy of the Instructions annexed to the said Convention, and which shall be considered as an integral Part thereof, and that such Instructions shall be written in Portuguese and English, and signed for the Vessels of each of the Two Powers, by the Minister of their respective Marine, with a Reservation of the Faculty of altering the said Instructions, in whole or in part, according to Circumstances; it being however well understood, that the said Alterations cannot take place but by common Agreement, and by the Consent of the Two High contracting Parties.

EIGHTH ARTICLE.—In order to bring to Adjudication with the least Delay and Inconvenience, the Vessels which may be detained for having been engaged in an illicit Traffic in Slaves, there shall be established, within the Space of a Year at furthest from the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Convention, Two mixed Commissions, formed of an equal Number of Individuals of the Two Nations, named for the Purpose by their respective Sovereigns; and that those Commissions shall reside, one in a Possession belonging to His Majesty, the other within the Territories of His most Faithful Majesty; and that the Two Governments, at the Period of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the said Convention, should declare, each for its own Dominions, in what Places the Commissions shall respectively reside, each of the Two High Contracting Parties reserving to itself the Right of changing at its Pleasure the Place of Residence of the Commission held within its own Dominions; provided however, that one of the Two Commissions shall always be held upon the Coast of Africa, and the other in the Brazils; and that these Commissions shall judge the Causes submitted to them, without Appeal, and according to the Regulations and Instructions annexed to the said Convention, of which they shall be considered as an integral Part.

NINTH ARTICLE.—His Britannic Majesty, in conformity with the Stipulations of the Treaty of the Twenty-second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, engaged to grant, in the Manner herein-after explained, sufficient Indemnification to all the Proprietors of Portuguese Vessels and Cargoes captured by British Cruizers, between the First Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, and the Period at which the Two Commissions pointed out in the Eighth Article of the said Convention shall assemble at their respective Posts; and His Majesty and His most Faithful Majesty did agree, that all Claims of the Nature before mentioned shall be received and liquidated by a mixed Commission to be held at London, and which shall consist of an equal Number of the Individuals of the Two Nations, named by their respective Sovereigns, and upon the same Principles stipulated by the Eighth Article of the said Convention, and by the other Acts which form an integral Part of the same; and that the aforesaid Commissioners shall commence their Functions Six Months after the Ratification of the said Convention, or sooner if possible: And whereas it was also by the said Convention agreed, that the Proprietors of Vessels captured by the British Cruizers cannot claim Compensation for a larger Number of Slaves than that which according to the existing Laws of Portugal they were permitted to transport according to the Rate of Tonnage of the captured Vessel: and that every Portuguese Vessel captured with TENTH ARTICLE.—His Majesty engaged to pay, within the Space of a Year at furthest from the Decision of each Case, to the Individual having a just Claim to the same, the Sums which shall be granted to them by the Commissioners described in the preceding Articles of the said Convention.

ELEVENTH ARTICLE.—His Majesty engaged to pay the Three hundred thousand Pounds Sterling of Indemnification, stipulated by the Convention of the Twenty-first of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, in favour of the Proprietors of Portuguese Vessels captured by British Cruizers up to the Period of the First of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, in the Manner following; viz. the First Payment of One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds Sterling, Six Months after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Convention recited by this Act, and that the remaining One hundred and fifty thousand Pounds Sterling, as well as the Interest at Five per Centum due upon the total Sum, from the Day of the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Convention of the Twenty-first of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, should be paid Nine Months after the Exchange of the Ratifications of the Convention recited by this Act; and that the Interest due shall be payable up to the Day of the last Payment; and that all the aforesaid Payments shall be made in London, to the Minister of His most Faithful Majesty at the Court of His Majesty, or to the Persons whom His most Faithful Majesty shall think proper to authorize for that Purpose.

INSTRUCTIONS.

FIRST ARTICLE.—Every British or Portuguese Ship of War shall have a Right to visit the Merchant Ships of either of the Two Powers actually engaged or suspected to be engaged in the Slave Trade; and should any Slaves be found on board, according to the Tenor of the Sixth Article of the aforesaid Additional Convention; and as to what regards the Portuguese Vessels, should there be Ground to suspect that the said Slaves have been embarked on a Part of the Coast of Africa where the Traffic in Slaves can no longer be legally carried on in consequence of the Stipulations in force between the Two High Contracting Powers; in these Cases alone the Commander of the said Ship of War may detain them, and having detained them, he is to bring them as soon as possible for Judgment before that of the Two mixed Commissions appointed by the Eighth Article of the Convention which shall be nearest, or which the Commander of the capturing Ship shall, upon his own Responsibility, think he can soonest reach from the Spot where the Slave Ship shall have been detained; and that Ships on board of which no Slaves shall be found intended for the Purposes of Traffic, shall not be detained on any Account or Pretence whatever; and that Negro Servants or Sailors that may be found on board the said Vessels cannot in any Case be deemed a sufficient Cause for Detention.

SECOND ARTICLE.—No Merchantman or Slave Ship can on any Account or Pretence whatever be visited or detained, whilst in the Port or Roadstead belonging to either of the Two High Contracting Powers, or within Cannon Shot of the Batteries on Shore; but in case suspicious Vessels should be found so circumstanced, proper Representations may be addressed to the Authorities of the Country, requesting them to take effectual Measures for preventing such Abuses.

THIRD ARTICLE.—In consequence of the immense Extent of the Shores of Africa to the North of the Equator, along which this Commerce continues prohibited, and the Facility thereby afforded for illicit Traffic, on Points where either the total Absence or at least the Distance of lawful Authorities bar ready Access to those Authorities; in order to prevent it, and for the more readily attaining the salutary End that His Majesty and His most Faithful Majesty did actually grant to each other the Power, without prejudice to the Rights of Sovereignty, to visit and detain, as if on the High Seas, any Vessel having Slaves on board, even within Cannon Shot of the Shore of their respective Territories on the Continent of Africa to the North of the Equator, in case of their being no local Authorities to whom Recourse might be had, as has been stated in the preceding Article; and that in such case, Vessels so visited may be brought before the mixed Commissioners in the Form prescribed in the First Article of the said Instructions.

FOURTH ARTICLE.—No Portuguese Merchantman or Slave Ship shall, on any Pretence whatever, be detained, which shall be found any where near the Land or on the High Seas South of the Equator, unless after a Chase that shall have commenced North of the Equator.

FIFTH ARTICLE.—Portuguese Vessels furnished with a regular Passport, having Slaves on board shipped at those Parts of the Coast of Africa where the Trade is permitted to Portuguese Subjects, and which shall afterwards be found North of the Equator, shall not be detained by the Ships of War of the Two Nations, though furnished with the present Instructions, provided the same can account for their Course, either in conformity with the Practice of the Portuguese Navigation, by steering some Degrees to the Northward in search of fair Winds, or for other legitimate Causes, such as the Dangers of the Sea, duly proved; or lastly, in the Case of their Passports proving that they were bound for a Portuguese Port not within the Continent of Africa: Provided always, that with regard to all Slave Ships detained to the North of the Equator, the Proof of the Legality of the Voyage is to be furnished by the Vessel so detained; on the other Hand, with respect to Slave Ships detained to the South of the Equator, in conformity with the Stipulations of the preceding Article, the Proof of the Illegality of the Voyage is to be exhibited by the Captor: It is in like Manner stipulated, that the Number of Slaves found on board a Slave Ship by the Cruizers, even should the Number not agree with that contained in their Passport, shall not be a sufficient Reason to justify the Detention of the Ship; but the Captain and the Proprietors shall be denounced in the Portuguese Tribunals in the Brazils, in order to their being punished according to the Laws of the Country.

SIXTH ARTICLE.—Every Portuguese Vessel intended to be employed in the legal Traffic in Slaves, in conformity with the Principles laid down in the said Convention, shall be commanded by a Native Portuguese, and Two Thirds at least of the Crew shall likewise be Portuguese; provided always, that its Portuguese or Foreign Construction shall in no wise affect its Nationality, and that the Negro Sailors shall always be reckoned as Portuguese, provided they belong as Slaves to Subjects of the Crown of Portugal, or that they have been enfranchised in the Dominions of His most Faithful Majesty.

SEVENTH ARTICLE.—Whenever a Ship of War shall meet a Merchant Vessel liable to be searched, it shall be done in the most mild Manner, and with every Attention which is due between Allied and Friendly Nations; and in no Case shall the Search be made by an Officer holding a Rank inferior to that of Lieutenant in the Navy.

EIGHTH ARTICLE.—The Ships of War which may detain Slave Ships, in pursuance of the Principles laid down in the said Instructions, shall leave on board all the Cargo of Negroes untouched, as well as the Captain, and a Part at least of the Crew of the Slave Ship; and that the Captain shall draw up in Writing an authentic Declaration, which shall exhibit the State in which he found the detained Ship, and the Changes which may have taken place in it; and that he shall deliver to the Captain of the Slave Ship a signed Certificate of the Papers seized on board the said Vessel, as well as of the Number of Slaves found on board at the Moment of Detention; and that the Negroes shall not be disembarked till after the Vessels which contain them shall be arrived at the Place where the Legality of the Capture is to be tried by one of the Two mixed Commissions, in order that in the Event of their not being adjudged legal Prize, the Loss of the Proprietors may be more easily repaired; but that if urgent Motives, deduced from the Length of the Voyage, the State of Health of the Negroes, or other Causes, require that they shall be disembarked entirely or in Part, before the Vessel can arrive at the Slaves (Treaty with Portugal).

Place of the Residence of One of the said Commissions, the Commander of the capturing Ship may take on himself the Responsibility of such Disembarkation, provided that the Nécessity be stated in a Certificate in proper Form.

NINTH ARTICLE.—No Conveyance of Slaves from one Port of the Brazils to another, or from the Continent or Islands of Africa to the Possessions of Portugal out of America, shall take place as Objects of Commerce, except in Ships provided with Passports from the Portuguese Government ad hoc.

REGULATIONS

THE MIXED COMMISSIONS,

TO BE ESTABLISHED BY THE SAID CONVENTION UPON THE COAST OF AFRICA AND IN THE BRAZILS.

FIRST ARTICLE.—The said Commissions are appointed to decide upon the Legality of the Detention of such Slave Vessels as the Cruizers of both Nations shall detain, in pursuance of the said Convention for carrying on an illicit Commerce in Slaves; and that the above-mentioned Commissions shall judge, without Appeal, according to the Letter and Spirit of the Treaty of the Twenty-second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and of the said Additional Convention to the said Treaty, signed at London on the Twenty-eighth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and seventeen, and recited in this Act: That the Commissions shall give Sentence as summarily as possible, and they are required to decide (as far as they shall find it practicable) within the Space of Twenty Days, to be dated from that on which every detained Vessel shall have been brought into the Port where they shall reside; first, upon the Legality of the Capture; secondly, in the Case in which the captured Vessel shall have been liberated, as to the Indemnification which she is to receive: And it is hereby provided, that in all Cases the final Sentence, shall not be delayed on account of the Absence of Witnesses, or for Want of other Proofs, beyond the Period of Two Months, except upon the Application of any of the Parties interested, when, upon their giving satisfactory Security to charge themselves with the Expence and Risks of the Delay, the Commissioners may, at their Discretion, grant an additional Delay, not exceeding Four Months.

SECOND ARTICLE.—Each of the above-mentioned mixed Commissions, which are to reside on the Coast of Africa and in the Brazils, shall be composed in the following Manner: The Two High Contracting Parties shall each of them name a Commissary Judge and a Commissioner of Arbitration, who shall be authorized to hear and to decide, without Appeal, all Cases of Capture of Slave Vessels which, in pursuance of the Stipulation of the Additional Convention of this Date, may be laid before them; and that all the essential Parts of the Proceedings carried on before these mixed Commissions, shall be written down in the Language of the Country in which the Commission may reside; and the Commissary Judges, and the Commissioners of Arbitration shall make Oath, in Presence of the Principal Magistrate of the Place in which the Commission may reside, to judge fairly and faithfully, to have no Preference either for the Claimants or the Captors, and to act in all their Decisions in pursuance of the Stipulations of the Treaty of the Twenty-second of January One thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and of the additional Convention to the said Treaty recited in this Act; and that there shall be attached to each Commission a Secretary or Registrar appointed by the Sovereign of the Country in which the Commissions may reside, who shall register all its Acts, and who, previous to taking Charge of his Post shall make Oath, in Presence of at least One of the Commissary Judges, to conduct himself with Respect for their Authority, and to act with Fidelity in all the Affairs which may belong to his Charge.

THIRD ARTICLE.—The Form of the Process shall be as follows: The Commissary Judges of the Two Nations shall in the First Place proceed to the Examination of the Papers of the Vessel, and to receive the Depositions on Oath of the Captain and Two or Three at least of the principal Individuals on board of the detained Vessel, as well as the Declaration on Oath of the Captor, should it appear necessary, in order to be able to judge and to pronounce if the said Vessel has been justly detained or not, according to the Stipulations of the said Additional Convention recited in this Act, and in order that according to this Judgment it may be condemned or liberated; and in the Event of the Two Commissary Judges not agreeing on the Sentence they ought to pronounce, whether as to the Legality of the Detention, or the Indemnification to be allowed, or on any other Question which might result from the Stipulations of the said Convention, they shall draw by Lot the Name of One of the Two Commissioners of Arbitration, who, after having considered the Documents of the Process, shall consult with the above-mentioned Commissary Judges on the Case in question; and the final Sentence shall be pronounced conformably in the Opinion of the Majority of the above-mentioned Commissary Judges, and of the above-mentioned Commissioner of Arbitration.

FOURTH ARTICLE.—As often as the Cargo of Slaves found on board of a Portuguese Slave Ship shall have been embarked on any Point whatever of the Coast of Africa where the Slave Trade continues lawful to the Subjects of the Crown of Portugal, such Slave Ship shall not be detained on Pretext that the above-mentioned Slaves shall have been brought originally by Land from any other Part whatever of the Continent.

FIFTH ARTICLE.—In the authenticated Declaration which the Captors shall make before the Commission, as well as in the Certificate of the Papers seized, which shall be delivered to the Captain of the captured Vessel at the Time of the Detention, the above-mentioned Captor shall be bound to declare his Name, the Name of his Vessel, as well as the Latitude and Longitude of the Place where the Detention shall have taken place, and the Number of Slaves found living on board of the Slave Ship at the Time of the Detention.

SIXTH ARTICLE.—As soon as Sentence shall have been passed, the detained Vessel, if liberated, and what remains of the Cargo, shall be restored to the Proprietors, who may before the same Commission claim a Valuation of the Damages which they may have a Right to demand, the Captor himself; and in his Default his Government, shall remain responsible for the above-mentioned Damages; and that the Two High Contracting Powers did bind themselves to defray, within the Term of a Year from the Date of the Sentence, the Indemnifications which may be granted by the above-named Commission, it being understood that these Indemnifications shall be at the Expence of the Power of which the Captor shall be a Subject.

SEVENTH ARTICLE.—In case of the Condemnation of a Vessel for an unlawful Voyage, she shall be declared lawful Prize, as well as her Cargo, of whatever Description it may be, with the Exception of the Slaves who may be on board as Objects of Commerce; and the said Vessel, Vessel, as well as her Cargo, shall be sold by Public Sale, for the Profit of the Two Governments; and as to the Slaves, they shall receive from the mixed Commission a Certificate of Emancipation, and shall be delivered over to the Government on whose Territory the Commission which shall have so judged them shall be established, to be employed as Servants or Free Labourers, with Guarantee by each of the Two Governments respectively, the Liberty of such Portion of these Individuals as shall be respectively consigned to it.

EIGHTH ARTICLE.—Every Claim for Compensation of Losses occasioned to Ships suspected of carrying on an illicit Trade in Slaves, not condemned as lawful Prize by the mixed Commissions, shall be also heard and judged by the above-named Commissions, in the Form provided by the Third Article of the said Regulations herein-before recited; and in all Cases wherein Restitution shall be so decreed, the Commission shall award to the Claimant or Claimants, or his or their lawful Attorney or Attornies, for his or their Use, a just and complete Indemnification, first, for all Costs of Suit, and for all Losses and Damages which the Claimant or Claimants may have actually sustained by such Capture and Detention; that is to say, in the Case of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified, first, for the Ship, her Tackle, Apparel, and Stores; secondly, for all Freight due and payable; thirdly, for the Value of the Cargo of Merchandize, if any; fourthly, for the Slaves on board at the Time of Detention, according to the computed Value of such Slaves at the Place of Destination, deducting therefrom the usual fair average Mortality for the unexpired Period of the regular Voyage, deducting also for all Charges and Expences payable upon the Sale of such Cargoes, including Commission of Sale when payable at such Port; and fifthly, for all other regular Charges in such Cases of total Loss; and in all other Cases not of total Loss, the Claimant or Claimants shall be indemnified, first, for all special Damages and Expences occasioned to the Ship by the Detention, and for Loss of Freight when due or payable; secondly, a Demurrage, when due, according to the Schedule annexed; thirdly, a daily Allowance for the Subsistence of Slaves of One Shilling or One hundred and eighty Reis for each Person, without Distinction of Age or Sex, for so many Days as it shall appear to the Commission that the Voyage has been or may be delayed by reason of such Detention; as likewise, fourthly, for any Deterioration of Cargo or Slaves; fifthly, for any Diminution in the Value of the Cargo of Slaves proceeding from an increased Mortality beyond the average Amount of the Voyage, or from Sickness occasioned by Detention, this Value to be ascertained by their computed Price at the Place of Destination, as in the above Case of total Loss; sixthly, an Allowance of Five per Centum on the Amount of Capital employed in the Purchase and Maintenance of Cargo for the Period of Delay occasioned by the Detention; and seventhly, for all Premium of Insurance on additional Risks; the Claimant or Claimants shall likewise be entitled to Interest at the Rate of Five per Centum per Annum on the Sum awarded, until paid by the Government to which the capturing Ship belongs; the whole Amount of such Indemnifications being calculated in the Money of the Country to which the captured Ship belongs, and to be liquidated at Exchange Current at the Time of Award, excepting the Sum for the Subsistence of Slaves, which shall be paid at par, as above stipulated: The Two High Contracting Parties wishing to avoid, as much as possible, every Species of Fraud in the Execution of the Additional Convention of this Date, have agreed, that if it should be proved, in a Manner evident to the Conviction of the Judges of the Two Nations, and without having Recourse to the Decision of a Commissioner of Arbitration, that the Captor has been led into Error by a voluntary and reprehensible Fault on the Part of the Captain, of the detained Ship, in that Case only the detained Ship shall not have the Right of receiving, during the Days of her Detention, the Demurrage stipulated by the present Article:

Slaves (Treaty with Portugal).

and so in proportion.

NINTH ARTICLE.—When the Proprietors of a Ship suspected of carrying on an illicit Trade in Slaves, released in consequence of a Sentence of One of the mixed Commissions (or in the Case as above mentioned of total Loss), Loss), shall claim Indemnification for the Loss of Slaves which he may have suffered, he shall in no Case be entitled to claim for more than the Number of Slaves which his Vessel was by the Portuguese Laws authorized to carry, which Number shall always be declared in his Passport.

TENTH ARTICLE.—The mixed Commission established in London by the Article Ninth of the said Convention herein-before recited, shall hear and determine all Claims for Portuguese Ships and Cargoes captured by British Cruizers, on account of the unlawful Trading in Slaves since the First of June One thousand eight hundred and fourteen, till the Period when the Convention is to be in complete Execution, awarding to them, conformably to the Ninth Article of the said Convention, a just and complete Compensation, upon the Basis laid down in the preceding Article, either for total Loss, or for Losses and Damages sustained by the Owners and Proprietors of the said Ships and Cargoes; and it was also provided, that the said Commission established in London shall be composed and proceed exactly upon the same Basis determined in the Articles of One, Two, and Three of the Regulations herein-before recited for the Commissions established on the Coast of Africa and the Brazils.

ELEVENTH ARTICLE.—It shall not be permitted to any of the Commissary Judges, nor to the Arbitrators, nor to the Secretary of any of the mixed Commissions, to demand or receive from any one of the Parties concerned in the Sentences which they shall pronounce, any Emolument, under any Pretext whatsoever, for the Performance of the Duties which are imposed upon them by the Regulations annexed to the Convention as aforesaid.

NINTH ARTICLE.—When the Parties interested shall imagine they have Cause to complain of any evident Injustice on the Part of the mixed Commissions, they may represent it to their respective Governments, who reserve to themselves the Right of mutual Correspondence, for removing when they think fit, the Individuals who may compose these Commissions.

THIRTEENTH ARTICLE.—In the Case of a Vessel detained unjustly under the Pretence of the Stipulations of the Additional Convention of this Date, and in which the Captor should neither be authorized by the Tenor of the above mentioned Convention, nor of the Instructions annexed to it, the Government to which the detained Vessel may belong, shall be entitled to demand Reparation, and in such Case the Government to which the Captor may belong, binds itself to cause the Subject of Complaint to be fully examined, and to inflict upon the Captor, if he be found to have deserved it, a Punishment proportioned to the Transgression which may have been committed.

FOURTEENTH ARTICLE.—In the Event of the Death of One or more of the Commissioners, Judges, and Arbitrators composing the above-mentioned mixed Commissions, their Posts shall be supplied ad interim in the following Manner: On the Part of the British Government, the Vacancies shall be filled successively, in the Commission which shall sit within the Possessions of His Britannic Majesty, by the Governor or Lieutenant Governor resident in that Colony, by the principal Magistrate of the Place, and by the Secretary; and in the Brazils, by the British Consul and Vice Consul resident in the City in which the mixed Commission may be established; on the Part of Portugal, the Vacancies shall be supplied in the Brazils by such Persons as the Captain General of the Province shall name for that Purpose: And considering the Difficulty which the Portuguese Government would feel in naming fit Persons to fill the Posts which might become vacant in the Commission established in the British Possessions, it is agreed, that in case of the death of the Portuguese Commissioners, Judge, or Arbitrators, in those Possessions, the remaining Individuals of the above-mentioned Commission shall be equally authorized to proceed to the Judgment of such Slave Ships as may be brought before them, and to the Execution of their Sentence; in this Case alone, however, the Parties interested shall have the Right of appealing from the Sentence, if they think fit, to the Commission resident in the Brazils; and the Government to which the Captor shall belong shall be bound fully to defray the Indemnification which shall be due to them, if the Appeal be judged in favour of the Claimants; it being well understood that the Ship and Cargo shall remain during this Appeal in the Place of Residence of the First Commission before whom she may have been conducted: And it was in the said Regulation agreed to supply, as soon as possible, every Vacancy that may arise in the above-mentioned Commissions from Death or any other Contingency; and in case that the Vacancy of each of the Portuguese Commissioners residing in the British Possessions be not supplied at the End of Six Months, the Vessels which are taken taken there to be judged, after the Expiration of that Time, shall no longer have the Right of Appeal herein-before stipulated: And it was also further provided and declared and agreed, in a separate Article, that as soon as the total Abolition of the Slave Trade for the Subjects of the Crown of Portugal shall have taken place, the Two High Contracting Parties, by common Consent, will adapt to that State of Circumstances the Stipulations of the said Additional Convention of the 28th July herein-before recited; but in default of such Alterations, that the said Additional Convention shall remain in force until the Expiration of Fifteen Years from the Day on which the general Abolition of the Slave Trade shall so take place on the Part of the Portuguese Government; and that the said separate Article shall have the same Force and Validity as if it were inserted Word for Word in the said Additional Convention herein-before mentioned as aforesaid.

And whereas it is expedient and necessary that effectual Provision should be made for carrying into Execution the Provisions of the said Treaty; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Officers commanding any Ship of War of His Majesty, duly authorized and provided with Instructions according to the Provisions of the said Convention, to visit and detain all Vessels which shall be suspected, upon reasonable Grounds, of having Slaves on board acquired by an illicit Traffic, according to the Articles of the said Convention, and to detain and bring to Adjudication all Vessels and Cargoes thereby made subject to Detention and Condemnation, according to the Provisions of the said Convention, and the Instructions and Regulations aforesaid. 58 Geo. 3. c. 85. § 1.

All Vessels, belonging wholly or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, suspected upon reasonable Grounds of having Slaves on board acquired by an illicit Traffic, shall be, according to the said Treaty, Convention, and Regulations aforesaid, subject to the Visitation of British or Portuguese Vessels of War, duly authorized for that Purpose, according to the Provisions before recited; and all Vessels belonging wholly or in part to His Majesty's Subjects, which shall have Slaves on board acquired by an illicit Traffic, contrary to the Treaty, Convention, and Regulations, and all Boats, Apparel, Furniture, and Slaves belonging to such Vessels, and all Cargoes therein, Ships of War duly authorized may seize all suspected Vessels.

British Vessels suspected of having Slaves on board, subject to Seizure by Portuguese or British Vessels, and to Adjudication by the Commissioners.

therein, shall be subject to the Visit and Detention of British or Portuguese Vessels of War duly authorized for that Purpose, according to the Stipulations of the said Convention, and to Forfeiture according to the said Convention, and the Regulations and Instructions thereunto annexed, and for that Purpose shall be subject to the Adjudication of, and to Condemnation or other Judgment by the Commissary Judges and Commissioners to be appointed according to the Provisions of the Convention, Instructions, and Regulations aforesaid. 58 Geo. 3. c. 85. § 2.
